

Let your voice rise with the words of your own song.

Fill in the blanks below to create your own lyrics.

“I like to sing loud and _____.

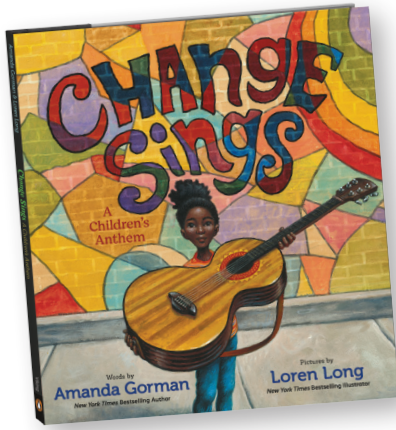

I like to _____ in a large crowd!

I sing in the morning and at _____.

I sing to put a _____ on people’s faces.

I sing to make someone’s day _____ bright!”

Help unscramble these words so the instruments can play the right tunes!

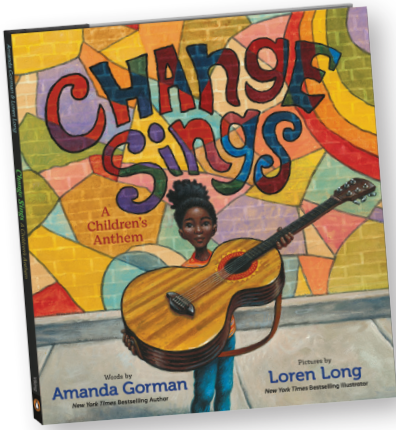

1. srdum

2. pmuterts

3. raigut

4. btau

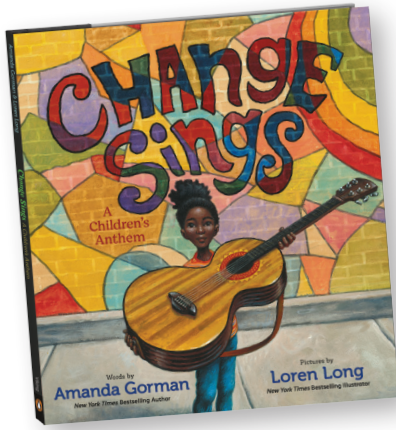

Sometimes being the change starts with how we act toward people.

Using the lines below, write down some kind acts you will do for others.

Color in these inspiring words from Change Sings!

Use different colors to create the mosaic pattern that's prominent throughout the book.

You are the voice that needs to be heard!

Using the lines below, write down some of the things that you are loud and proud about.

I am great at

_____.

I love helping others because

_____.

I like to give _____ to my friends and family.

Being nice to people makes me

_____.

Art comes in many forms—from music, to painting, to the poem you read in Change Sings!

Using the space below, draw a mural to showcase what change you hope to be and see.

